

South Coast Festival of Birds & Biodiversity

Presenting an array of entertaining community events showcasing the beautiful birds & biodiversity of the south coast of WA

JANUARY TO APRIL 2019

EVENTS :

- Bird Walks and Workshops
- Citizen Science Fauna Surveys
- Library Talks & Symposium
- Gondwana Link Discovery tour
- Photography & Art Exhibitions
- Musical Concert & Films
- & much more!

Event details & registration:

birdfestival.greenskills.org.au

or contact Green Skills on 98483310

MAIN EVENT:

Festival of Birds Symposium

8.30am to 12.30pm, Friday 15th March 2019 at UWA Albany, 35 Stirling Terrace, Albany.

Welcome to Country

Keynote presentations:

Professor Steve Hopper, WA Museum Curator of Ornithology

Out of the Ocbils: birds and eucalypt diversity—origins and conservation

Dr Nic Dunlop, Conservation Council of WA Citizen Science co-ordinator

Biodiversity and Gondwana Link

Angela Sanders, Bush Heritage Australia Ecologist

Making Progress with Eco Restoration

Followed by a Panel of WA biologists who will share their knowledge and love of the incredible birds and biodiversity of the South Coast region

Entry $10

This Festival is supported by Lotterywest, Museum of the Great Southern, Green Skills, BirdLife WA, UWA- Albany, South Coast NRM, WA Department of Biodiversity, Conservation and Attractions, Albany Bird Group, Gondwana Link Ltd, Yongergnow Malleefowl Centre, Bush Heritage Australia, Conservation Council of WA & others. The Green Skills' biodiversity program is supported by funding from the Western Australian Government's State Natural Resource Management Program, supported by Royalties for Regions.