

South Coast Festival of Birds & Biodiversity

Threatened Species Habitat Visit

Thursday 14th March 3pm - 8pm

Outing to Waychinicup to learn about threatened bird & fauna conservation. Jointly hosted by BirdLife and Friends of the Western Ground Parrot, with guest speaker Sarah Comer, DBCA's Regional ecologist, and BirdLife's Anne Bondin. Cost $20 per participant, with all proceeds going to the recovery of the Western Ground Parrot. Limited places, bookings essential: <https://www.trybooking.com/book/event?eid=457411> Meet at Lower King Bridge car park. Sturdy footwear recommended, also bring water and a snack.

Denmark Bird & Fauna Outing & Talk

"Birds & Fauna of the Forest and Home Garden"

Saturday 30th March 9.00am to 11.30am

This field outing will visit the home of John Pate, a birdwatching enthusiast, who will give a talk about his observations about birds around his property. Cost $10. Bring binoculars, hat, sturdy footwear and morning refreshment. Meet at 681 Mt Shadforth Road, Denmark. For info contact Basil Schur 98483310 or bschur@greenskills.org.au

Meet the Birds Along the Kalgan River

Sunday 24th February 9am- 1pm

This tour will include a Biodiversity Walk along the Kalgan River led by Wayne Monks at Riverside Drive, Upper Kalgan. Bring along a packed lunch, sturdy shoes and binoculars. Meet at the Upper Kalgan Hall car park at start of the Luke Pen walk trail. Free event. Please register with Wayne Monks wmonks@westnet.com.au 0499113193

Event details & registration: birdfestival.greenskills.org.au or contact Green Skills on 98483310

Photos by Brent Barrett, Keith Lightbody & Geoff Taylor

This Festival is supported by Lotterywest, Museum of the Great Southern, Green Skills, BirdLife WA, UWA- Albany, South Coast NRM, the Department of Biodiversity, Conservation and Attractions, Albany Bird Group, Gondwana Link Ltd, Yongergnow Malleefowl Centre, Bush Heritage Australia, Conservation Council of WA & others. The Green Skills' Gondwana Wetland project is supported by funding from the Western Australian Government's State Natural Resource Management Program, supported by Royalties for Regions.