

South Coast Festival of Birds & Biodiversity

Presenting an array of entertaining community events showcasing the beautiful birds & biodiversity of the south coast of WA

JANUARY TO APRIL 2020

Photos by John Anderson

EVENTS :

- Bird Walks and Workshops
- Citizen Science Fauna Surveys
- Library Talks & Symposium
- Gondwana Link Discovery Tour
- Photography & Art Exhibitions
- Films
- & much more!

MAIN EVENT:

Festival of Birds Symposium

8.30am to 12.30pm, Friday 13th March 2020
UWA Albany, 35 Stirling Terrace, Albany.

Welcome to Country

Keynote presentations:

Professor Steve Hopper, UWA

Restoration Genetics and its lessons for conservation

Dr Judy Fisher

Biodiversity on the International Stage

Vicki Stokes, Bird Life WA

Citizen Science and Bird Conservation

Professor Dale Roberts

Looking back on a Career with WA's unique biodiversity

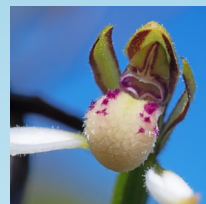

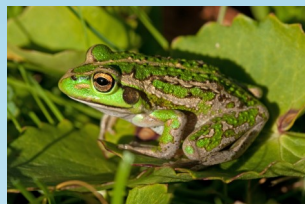

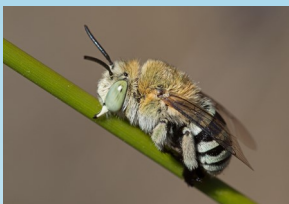

Updates by other biodiversity leaders who will share their knowledge and love of the incredible birds and biodiversity of the South Coast region

Entry $10

Event details & registration:

birdfestival.greenskills.org.au

Green Skills 98483310

Photos by John Anderson

This Festival is supported by Lotterywest, Museum of the Great Southern, Great Southern Development Commission, the Koorabup Trust, Green Skills, BirdLife WA, UWA- Albany, South Coast NRM, WA Department of Biodiversity, Conservation and Attractions, Albany Bird Group, Gondwana Link Ltd, Yongergnow Malleefowl Centre, Bush Heritage Australia, Conservation Council of WA & others. The Green Skills' biodiversity program is supported by funding from the Western Australian Government's State Natural Resource Management Program, supported by Royalties for Regions.