Focus on Tootanelup
and Boggy Lake Reserve

FREE EVENT

Green Skills Inc

birdlife
WESTERN AUSTRALIA

This Citizen Science event will gather information to help land managers protect these special wetlands from the impacts of climate change and salinity. Join in an educational day with waterway ecologists Geraldine and Steve Janicke, and other experts in carrying out biodiversity assessments of Tootanelup Lagoon and associated wetlands and bushland, west of Mt Barker. You can help collect base line environmental information to climate change mitigation planning to protect vital freshwater wetlands and endangered Australasian Bittern habitat.

Thursday 10 Feb 2022
9:30 – 4pm
