

Photo by Alan Danks

THREATENED BIRDS FIELD TRIP

Visit Waychinicup National Park

Tues 1st March 3pm – 8pm 2022

Guest speaker:

Regional Ecologist Sarah Comer (DBCA)

Find out why shorebird numbers are declining, why some Noisy Scrub-birds live on an island and why Western Ground Parrots may again be heard in heathlands east of Albany.

Part of the South Coast Festival of Birds & Biodiversity 2022 | birdfestival.greenskills.org.au

Field trip to Waychinicup hosted jointly by BirdLife and Friends of the Western Ground Parrot focussing on endangered birds of the Albany region. Guest speaker: Regional ecologist Sarah Comer (DBCA). Meet at Lower King Bridge car park. Sturdy footwear recommended.

Also bring water and something to snack on. Limited places.

Cost: $20.

Bookings required <https://www.trybooking.com/events/landing/850955>

Department of
Parks and Wildlife

